RE: Notice of negative preliminary determination in the countervailing duty investigation of certain corrosion-resistant steel products from Taiwan (C-583-857)

1. On 11/06/2015, Commerce published in the Federal Register its negative preliminary determination in the countervailing duty investigation of certain corrosion-resistant steel products from Taiwan (80 FR 68852).
2. The products covered by this investigation are described in message 5183305, dated 07/02/2015.
3. This investigation has been assigned investigation number C-583-857.
4. Commerce preliminarily found that critical circumstances do not exist for the two respondent firms subject to individual examination and that critical circumstances exist for imports of subject merchandise from "All Other" producers and exporters from Taiwan (80 FR 68504, dated 11/05/2015). Commerce further indicated that its affirmative preliminary critical circumstances determination and the retroactive collection of cash deposits would apply with regard to companies subject to the all others rate, contingent upon Commerce reaching an affirmative result in the preliminary determination. However, because the preliminary determination was negative, we preliminarily determine that critical circumstances do not exist with regard to imports of corrosion-resistant steel from Taiwan.
5. No suspension of liquidation is required at this time.
6. If there are any questions by the importing public regarding this message, please contact the Call Center for the Office of AD/CVD Operations, Enforcement and Compliance, International Trade Administration, U.S. Department of Commerce at (202) 482-0984. CBP ports should submit their inquiries through authorized CBP channels only. (This message was generated by OIII: CR.)
7. There are no restrictions on the release of this information.
